

Logistics Analyst

Based at: Hamburg, Germany - Ally Coffee's Office

Reports to: Global Logistics Manager, Danilo Vitor

Start Date: ASAP

Job type: Full-Time Salaried with Benefits

Job Summary: To coordinate the importation and/or exportation of coffee, offering support to our internal and external clients, booking the necessary services and following up on deliveries helping the company to provide a great level of service

Key Responsibilities and Accountabilities:

- Plan and implement supply chain optimization projects
- Oversee client expectations and our service level (B2B)
- Coordinate the importation and/or exportation of coffee
- Create delivery orders
- Follow-up on contracted deliveries
- Freight booking trucking/shipments
- Discover the most cost-effective shipping modes and schedules
- Help foster trusting relationships with vendors and team members
- Evaluate vendor operations (e.g., freight forwarders) according to quality standards
- Collaborate with IT professionals to implement effective systems
- Track KPIs and report on supply chain performance

Qualifications:

- 4 years of experience in the logistics industry or related industry
- Knowledge of Incoterms, latest version, desired knowledge on ESCC (European Standard Contract for Coffee)
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office and ERP systems
- Familiarity with supply chain processes (e.g., route planning, warehouse management)
- Strong analytical mind with problem-solving aptitude
- Strong attention to detail
- Great interpersonal skills
- Exceptional verbal and written communication skills, fluent in English (desired German, Spanish and Portuguese).

Application Instructions: Please send a brief cover letter and resume to Performance Specialist, Larissa Magalhães: larissa@allycoffee.com